

Learning English: Long Interview Questions

Underline the important words and remember to lengthen the sound of the important words reduced sounds: d'ju – do you are y' – are you dija – did you have you – avye to – t' of - uv

Possible synonyms: speak / learn / converse / use / apply English / this language

1. Do you like learning English?
2. Do you find it fun to speak in this language?
3. Are you worried about making mistakes when speaking English?
4. Do you have any advice about how I can improve my English skills?
5. When did you first start learning English?
6. What did you think of your first English teacher?
7. How did you first start learning English?
8. How do you study English now? Is it different?
9. Do you think English is easy to learn?
10. Are you better at reading and writing, or speaking and listening?
11. Are you becoming more confident in your abilities?
12. How often do you study English a week?
13. Do you read any foreign books to learn English?
14. Do you listen to any songs from the UK to learn English?
15. What movies do you watch to improve your English?
16. Do you watch them without reading the subtitles?
17. Do you have the chance to talk to foreigners?
18. If you do, how did you get to know them?
19. Could you tell me why you are interested in improving your English?
20. Do you use the English settings on your computer?
21. What do you particularly enjoy about your English classes?
22. How did you feel when you took the TOEIC test?
23. Are you going to take any other English test like IELTS or TOEFL?
24. How will you use your English skills in the future?
25. In fact, what do you want to do after graduating?
26. Do you think learning English is important for all university students?
27. Do you have any friends who you could talk to in English?
28. Will you continue to learn English after you graduate?
29. Have you spoken English when you went abroad?
30. What words do you find difficult to say in English?
31. How do you think an English teacher should teach?

Useful expressions:

Passive skills – listening, reading

Active skills - speaking , writing