

Future Society: Long Interview Questions

Reduced sounds:

dju – do you are y' – are you

Underline the important words and remember to lengthen the sound of the important words

1. Are you positive about the future?
2. What job do you think you will have?
3. Will you still be living with your family?
4. Do you think you will be married?
5. Will you buy a house or an apartment?
6. Will the area you live be crowded?
7. Do you think houses will have bigger gardens?
8. What do you think will be the biggest changes in the future?
9. Do you think the world population will still grow?
10. Where will be the best place to live in the future?
11. Do you think AI (artificial intelligence) will make our lives better?
12. Will our working week be reduced?
13. What will we be doing in our free time?
14. Do you think we will be healthier than now?
15. Will students still go to school or be taught online?
16. Do you think we will all drive electric cars by 2030 or will there be a another technology?
17. Do you think we will still rely on fossil fuels (coal/oil)?
18. Will we still be using too much plastic?
19. Do you believe there will be improvement in recycling?
20. Will we need to drive our own car or will it be driven automatically?
21. Do you think we can improve our living environment?
22. What technologies will help tackle global warning?
23. Do you feel that online shopping will lead to ghost town shopping?
24. What jobs do you think will not be around in the next 10 years?

Direct Questions	Indirect Questions
be verb Will you be married? What job will you have?	Do you think you will be married? What job do you think you will have?
regular verb Do you feel that online shopping will lead to ghost town shopping?	Will online shopping lead to ghost town shopping?
but: What technologies will help tackle global warning? What technologies will you learn?	What technologies do you believe will help tackle global warning? What technologies do you think you will learn?

I am sounding

ENGLISH

