

Compulsory English at High School: Long Interview Questions

Reduced sounds: d'ju – do you t' – to y' – you dija – did you

1. Do you like studying English?
2. What is your TOEIC score?
3. Do you think you are good at speaking English?
4. Do you think this aspect of English is improving since coming to university?
5. What are your strengths in English?
6. What do you think you are weak at?
7. In what ways do you think you are improving?
8. When did you start learning English?
9. Did you like studying English then?
10. What about at high school? Did you like it then?
11. How about now? Do you want to continue studying or not?
12. Why do you think that?
13. Do you prefer how you study English at university?
14. What do you think of how English was taught at high school?
15. Did you have a good teacher?
16. What did you focus on?
17. Did you want to study this?
18. Do you think translating text into English is the best way to learn English?
19. Did you want to give up English to focus on other subjects?
20. Was your teacher strict about accuracy?
21. Could you speak to your other classmates in English only?
22. What are the differences in how you study now?
23. Are you still learning new English vocabulary?
24. Do you think your English grammar has improved?
25. So, do you think we should study English at university?
26. Do you think it is right to have to study English at high school?
27. Should we stop compulsory English classes and allow students to decide for themselves?
28. What is the ideal way to actually study English?
29. Do you think your Japanese skills have suffered as a result of studying too much English?
30. What is the purpose of studying English anyway?
31. Do you think that with the advances in translation technology, it is pointless to study English?
32. Why do Japanese students struggle to speak English?
33. What are the actual benefits of studying English?
34. Should you prioritize your writing or speaking skills?
35. Why do you think that?
36. What do you think you should do to improve your speaking skills?
37. Have you ever read a book in English?
38. Are you reading any English articles from the newspaper?
39. Do you watch any YouTube channels to practice your English?
40. Do you think it is better to study abroad to improve your English?
41. Are you thinking of studying abroad?
42. Should English be taught from elementary school?
43. What do you think about the English education system at elementary?
44. Why did the government push for English classes at such an early age?
45. Should the government change the entrance examination to encourage spoken English?