

Dog-friendly dog training

Ian Dunbar (2007)

I have a dog and am a bad owner. Now he does not listen to anything I say. Except when I am holding his favorite food, jerky. I chose this talk because it hit me that dog-friendly dog training is exactly what my dog and I have needed. I hope this will also be helpful to other dog lover students and anyone else who will train someone someday.

BEFORE YOU WATCH

VOCABULARY

Match the following words with their meanings

- |                |   |
|----------------|---|
| a) distraction | - to force liquid, gas, etc. in a thin fast stream through a narrow opening                                   |
| b) dominance   | - a thing that is used to attract fish or animals, so that they can be caught                                 |
| c) amendment   | - a person whose job is to drive a car  |
| d) beatable    | - a thing that takes your attention away from what you are doing or thinking about                            |
| e) squirt      | - to kill a sick or injured animal or person by giving them drugs so that they die without pain               |
| f) lure        | - capable of being defeated   |
| g) chauffeur   | - a small change, improvement, or addition that is made to a law or document, or the process of doing this -  |
| h) euthanize   | - a silly habit or strange or weak aspect of a person's character that is considered harmless by other people |
| i) horrendous  | - the fact of being more powerful, more important, or more noticeable than other people or things             |
| j) foible      | - extremely shocking  |

WATCH <https://onl.la/Dr144PB>

WATCH FOR MAIN IDEAS

Watch the TED Talk Dog-friendly dog training by Ian Dunbar and answer the questions below.

- What are three rifts in dog training which made speakers to have this talk.
- What species the speaker believes are abused in life and why he believes so?
- What do you feel speakers are missing in human-dog as well as human-human relationships?

AFTER YOU WATCH

Complete the following cartoon, taking into consideration the speaker's idea of dog-friendly dog training methods.

Teach him to sit up

① 	②
③	④

ANSWER

BEFORE YOU WATCH

- a) distraction - a thing that takes your attention away from what you are doing or thinking about
- b) dominance - the fact of being more powerful, more important, or more noticeable than other people or things
- c) amendment - a small change, improvement, or addition that is made to a law or document, or the process of doing this
- d) beatable - capable of being defeated
- e) squirt - to force liquid, gas, etc. in a thin fast stream through a narrow opening
- f) lure - a thing that is used to attract fish or animals, so that they can be caught
- g) chauffeur - a person whose job is to drive a car
- h) euthanize - to kill a sick or injured animal or person by giving them drugs so that they die without pain
- i) horrendous - extremely shocking
- j) foible - a silly habit or strange or weak aspect of a person's character that is considered harmless by other people

WATCH

a)

People think they train their dogs by making up human rules without considering animal perspective.

People keep the rules secret from dogs.

People punish dogs for breaking rules they did not even know the rules existed.

b)

Dogs, horses and humans.

They have a habit of coming back and apologizing.

c)

Feed bucks.

AFTER YOU WATCH

