WHY I CHOSE THIS?

It's always difficult to find a job which is fun & good paid. I have done so many part-time job such as in supermarket, convenience store, teacher, ramen shop etc...

But not all of these job wasn't something I love. Even though, I really liked the job, the pay was not good enough.

In a part-time job, you can easily change jobs if you don't like them. But full-time jobs cannot be changed so easily. The topic of how to choose a job you like is a very important issue for job-hunting university students.

That is why I chose this TED talk!!

3. Based on the speaker's theory, what is the best job for this cat?

I have always been told that I am observant. I noticed immediately when a friend's cat was hiding something. I was also physically fit, and when I was a student I often played in clubs until the morning. I would rather have a job that is fun and exciting every day than one that pays well. I am not good at desk jobs.
