

Gapfill

French Revolution

French Revolution was brought in ().

Political system changed from monarchy to republic.

Important idea of the French Revolution was () and ().

There are () statuses.

1st and 2nd estate (20%) didn't have to pay any ()

3rd estate (80%) had to pay heavy (), and they had no right to join ()

Les Miserable was written by Victor Hugo in 1862.

The story is set during the 18 years from () to 1833.

It's a story of () people under the French Revolution.

About Story

Jean Valjean was jailed for () years. In 1815, he was paroled, but he stole () from bishop. And then he was persuaded a way of being as a person by bishop. And he restarted his new() During his new life, he helped Fantine, who sold herself and was sick. Valjean was told to take care of her daughter Cosette and she died.

10 years later, Valjean and Cosette were in (). In Paris, students held a ().

One of the students, Marius fell in love with Cosette. However, () occurred, so two of them were separated. During the revolution, a lot of students lost their (). Marius was also injured and helped by Valjean to sewerage. Valjean told Marius about his life in the () and asked him to look after Cosette. After that, Valjean disappeared.

Marius and Cosette got () and started to look for Valjean.

Valjean was at the end of his life. Marius and Cosette harried to meet Valjean. At last, Valjean told Cosette that he was not a real () and gave letter. He went to the ().

